

EDITORIAL COMMENT.

Miss Oma Goslin was a last week's bride in Bracken county, which reminds us:
"There swims no goose so gray but some day soon or late,
An honest gander comes that way and claims her for his mate."
But some young geese do not wait until they are gray.

The Baraca class of the First Baptist church, Frankfort, adopted a resolution exonerating Representative W. B. Harvey from blame in the Pumphrey-Harvey sensation.

Lexington's Leap Year bride's dower of free gifts was raked in by a matrimonial bureau couple from out of the state. Hopkinsville merchants should guard against an imported frame-up, in giving presents to the first girl who proposes and wins a husband.

The present general assembly has so far proven incapable of dealing with the most important business matter the people expected it to consider, the enactment of a new revenue law. The committee on Revenue and Taxation, from indifference or inefficiency, has not even introduced a bill, although it was supposed a commission had been engaged in framing a bill for the last two years. While the members are having personal quarrels over minor matters, this vital question, twice ordered considered by constitutional amendments, has been entirely overlooked. Gov. Stanley has brains enough to prepare a revenue bill and there is still a month left. It is not too late, but there is no more time to waste.

To a student of scandalology 250 miles away, there are many elements of improbability in the story told by Pumphrey on Harvey in the heat of the statewide logomachy. A screaming chambermaid was found in front of his open doorway in the daytime, in a public corridor of a crowded hotel and the charge is made that he had passed the bounds of ordinary freshness and violated the eleventh commandment. The story is improbable, even to the screaming, which seldom follows the first stages of flirtatious liberties with women who are no longer spring chickens. We don't know Mr. Harvey, but to believe his guilt it would be necessary to assume that he is a fool, and one foolish grand-stand play doesn't necessarily make a man a born idiot. Indeed Mr. Harvey seems to be about as smart as the rest of them, except when he is riding his great hobby and mistaking the Governor for a windmill. And like Don Quixote he doesn't seem to lack courage.

PENNYROYAL FAIR'S NEW DIRECTORY

Only Two Changes Made In The Personnel of The Board.

MUCH INTEREST IS TAKEN
President S. L. Cowherd Elected Over His Urgent Protest.

The stockholders of the Pennyroyal Fair met yesterday and elected a board of directors. Of the 626 votes, 422 were represented. Only two changes were made in the old directory, those elected being as follows:

Alex Wallace, M. A. Mason, S. L. Cowherd, Jno. Garnett, M. C. Forbes, T. W. Blakey, Jno. White, Holland Garnett, J. W. Riley, J. J. Metcalfe, Odie Davis, V. L. Gates, R. H. McGaughey, Lee Ellis and E. P. Eubanks.

President S. L. Cowherd asked to be relieved, but was elected anyhow. An issue of $5,000 of new preferred stock was authorized.

SPORT LOVERS WANT BASEBALL

Hope That Clarksville Will Secure Berth in the New Kitty League.

Baseball fans in Hopkinsville, Owensboro, Bowling Green and other towns formerly in the Old Kitty League circuit, are very active trying to restore the sport. Dr. Bassett, of Hopkinsville, who was the life of the old Kitty, is at the head of the movement, and has plans whereby the salary limit may be reduced to a minimum, making it possible for almost any town to maintain a club.

In the reports Clarksville has been mentioned several times as a member of the League, but as yet no official invitation has been extended. Clarksville has tried on two separate and distinct occasions league ball, but it has always been a losing proposition in the past on account of non-support and large expenses. But with reduced salary limit it might be possible for Clarksville to support a team. The real lovers of the sport in Clarksville are boosting it for all that it is worth, and when the lineup for the franchise comes, Clarksville may be in her old place.—Leaf-Chronicle.

SCIENTIFIC LECTURE

By Montraville Wood Next Lyceum Number Feb. 17.

Prof. Montraville Wood will give a demonstration with the gyroscope, monorail car and ultra-violet ray, at the Tabernacle Feb. 17, assisted by his daughter, Miss Allene Wood. Prof. Wood is one of America's foremost inventors, especially in the electrical field.

The patents which have been awarded to him, number nearly one hundred, the majority of which are in practical use.

Every time you turn on your electric light with the familiar two-button snap switch, you can think of Mr. Wood as the inventor. Mr. Wood's researches in the electrical field date back to 1878.

FINE MEETING BY H. B. M. A.

Good Roads and Mutual Co-operation of Town and County Discussed.

A regular meeting of the H. B. M. A. was held Friday night and some important matters were discussed, the meeting being a very interesting one. A letter from Senator James in reply to one requesting him to support the Shackleford good roads bill was read and proved to be disappointing, in that Senator James did not agree to support the bill, but said he would give it due consideration.

It was decided to start a movement to have business men write personal letters to both Senator James and Senator Beckham asking them to help make this measure a law. The Senators are liable to receive many such letters in the near future, as all of this part of Kentucky is desperately in earnest about wanting federal aid for state highway improvements.

The bond issue was also discussed and universally favored. The opposition seems to be much less than it was in the beginning and the situation is constantly improving.

The plan of co-operation between the farmers and business men was again strongly urged by President J. O. Cook. He recommended that the business men keep in close touch with the farmers' clubs, meet with them and do everything possible to bring about closer relations.

This system of mutual assistance would continue to make it plain that the interests of town and country are so closely interwoven as to be one and the same.

The H. B. M. A. should also do everything possible to help the farmers find a satisfactory market for all of their products at good prices.

CORNER STONE RALLY

BISHOP JAMES ATKINS, D. D.

The readers of the Kentuckian are herewith introduced to Bishop James Atkins, D. D., President of the Louisville Annual Conference, of which Hopkinsville is one of the appointments. The Bishop will be a guest of our city next Sunday and Monday.

On Sunday morning he will preach at the Union Gospel Tabernacle, and on Monday morning he will officiate at the laying of the corner stone of the new Methodist church on South Main St.

All the readers of the Kentuckian are cordially invited to hear Bishop Atkins while in the city, and attend the ceremonies of the corner stone laying on Monday.

SANDY BYARS DROPS DEAD

Found In a Dying Condition on The Street, Victim of Heart Failure.

PROMINENT HDW. SALESMAN

Inquest Held And Verdict of Death From Heart Failure.

Sandy Byars, salesman in the Black Hardware Co., fell upon the street in front of the city building Sunday night about 7:30 with an attack of heart failure. He was picked up and taken inside the building and a physician summoned hastily, but Mr. Byars expired without regaining consciousness. He was a son of the late F. M. Byars, and lived with his mother and sisters on the corner of Main and Fifteenth street. The body was removed to his home and funeral services were held from the residence yesterday afternoon and the interment was in Riverside Cemetery.

Mr. Byars was about 43 years of age and unmarried. He had long been connected with the different hardware stores of the city.

OLDEST K. OF P. PASSES AWAY

Joseph Fry, Formerly of This City, Expires at Roanoke, Va., Aged 105

The oldest Knight of Pythias in the United States, Joseph Fry, died at Roanoke, Va., Thursday day night, aged 105 years. He was formerly of Hopkinsville, and later of New York. Death was due to the infirmities of age, although Mr. Fry retained his faculties to the last. Mr. Fry is well remembered here by the older citizens. He was in business here for many years. Three or four years ago he made a visit to this city, accompanied by one of his sons. At that time he was in vigorous health for one of his great age.

For Tunnel Awarded To Local Concern.

The Meacham Contracting Co. has secured a contract in connection with a new water power project in Tennessee for a 600 foot tunnel through a mountain of solid flint rock, connecting the Caney Fork and Collins rivers. The tunnel will be lined with concrete upon completion. Camps have been established and about 100 men are employed working day and night.

The same company completed the Diana Tunnel on the L. & N. R. R., consisting of 12,000 yards of concrete lining, about two months ago.

INCREASING 4,420 A DAY.

Washington, Feb. 14.—Census bureau experts estimate that the population of the United States on January 1 last was 101,208,315, and that by July 1 it will be 102,017,302. On July 1 last year they figured the population at 100,339,318. Western states have led in growth, Washington heading the list, with Oklahoma, Nevada, North Dakota and New Mexico following in the order named. The bureau's estimates are based on the rate of increase between the 1900 and 1910 censuses.

DISCARDED GIRL DIES.

Marion Frances Lambert, a Chicago High School girl, was found dead of poison in Lake Forest Park. Wm. H. Orpet, a University of Wisconsin junior, is in jail on suspicion. He was with the girl just before her death. He says he broke off a love affair with her and told her he was going to marry another girl, leaving their meeting place first. The authorities are trying to find out whether the jilted girl took her own life or was murdered. Orpet admits the love affair and many letters are held.

FIERCE ATTACK ON POSITIONS IN CHAMPAGNE

Berlin Reports Capture of Long Front From the French Forces.

FIGHTING AT SEVERAL POINTS

Austrian Seaplanes Attack Ravenna, Italy, and Fifteen Are Killed.

The Germans are fiercely attacking the French positions in the Artois section, as well as in Champagne. In the latter district Berlin reports the capture of a front of about 700 yards, while the French admit that the Germans have gained a footing in some of their advanced trenches near the Tahure-Somme-Py road.

In Artois, near Hill 140, which lies to the southwest of Vimy, the German attacks followed one another in quick succession, there being four during the course of the afternoon. Pushing forward in the face of a hail of shells and bullets, the Germans on their fourth attempt succeeded in entering one of the French first line trenches, while, however, they failed to hold, being almost immediately driven out with considerable losses in dead and wounded, according to Paris.

The heavy guns are being actively employed on both sides in the northern section of the Russian front, but no important changes in positions have occurred.

In the Isonzo region the Austrians have taken entrenchments from the Italians in the Rombon zone, while the Italian artillery has bombarded Austrian positions at various points, especially in the Gorizia section.

Austrian seaplanes have attacked the town of Ravenna, in Northeast Italy, and several persons in the vicinity. Fifteen persons are said to have been killed and a number injured.

On the Black sea Russian torpedo boat destroyers have sunk additional Turkish sailing vessels and have destroyed bridges and depots ashore.

The French cruiser Admiral Charner, it is feared by the French ministry of marine, has been lost while patrolling the Syrian coast. The cruiser has not been heard from since Feb. 8, when a German dispatch reported that a submarine had sunk a French warship.

The German gunboat Hedwig von Wissmann has been sunk on Lake Tanganyika, Africa, by the Belgians.

CAPT. C. B. CRUTCHFIELD

Dies At Trenton--One Son Lives In This City.

Trenton, Ky., Feb. 14.—Capt. Chas. B. Crutchfield, one of the county's best-known citizens and a wealthy planter, died at his home near this city Friday afternoon, after a protracted illness, in the seventy-fifth year of his age. Capt. Crutchfield was born in Spottsylvania county, Virginia, Dec. 27, 1841, and had been a citizen of this county many years. His wife, Lucy Sebree, to whom he was married in 1871, died only six months ago. Capt. Crutchfield was a Confederate soldier throughout the war, a member of Company E, Ninth Virginia cavalry, a farmer by profession, a member of the Christian church and a Mason. He leaves four children, to wit: A daughter, Mrs. O. W. Wilson, and three sons, S. B., C. B. Jr., of Hopkinsville, and M. R. Crutchfield.

Vice President Marshall has consented to run again and leave the 1912 ticket unchanged.James Thompson, Champ Clark's son-in-law, who is running a newspaper in New Orleans, is supporting a Bull Moose candidate for Govern-nor.President Wilson has abandoned his proposed Southern trip as unnecessary. He might send Champ Clark to New Orleans to straighten out his bolting son-in-law, Jim Thompson, or have him write a letter to Miss Genevieve.Some of the Democratic papers that gave the ticket lukewarm support, are permitting unfriendly correspondents at Frankfort to attack Gov. Stanley in reports of general assembly proceedings. Whatever mistakes he may have made, Gov.
Stanley is going ahead with his program of enacting much needed reform laws and incidentally is putting a corrupt machine out of business.
Just give him time.The dirt roads are in good condition and holding up well and some of the rock roads going to pieces.
That seems to have been the report made of the condition in Daviess county, say the Owensboro Messenger. This is a significant statement that ought not to be lost sight of in the problem of good roads. The dragging of dirt roads in Christian county, once very general, seems to have been discontinued almost entirely and the roads are now in a very bad condition. The only permanent way to make good roads is to pike them, but where it is not possible to improve all of them, the drag is a great thing and ought to be used whenever its use will help the roads.

TREAT BARB-WIRE INJURIES

Do Not Apply Axle Grease or Any Rancid Ointment to Wound—Remove All Foreign Substances.By DR. A. S. ALEXANDER, Wisconsin Agricultural College.)This is the season of the year when stockmen are most frequently annoyed with barb-wire injuries to their horses. Just a few things to bear in mind at such times suggested:After a barb-wire accident, do not apply axle grease or any rancid ointment to the wound. Wash the wound thoroughly with warm water. Then clip the hair as close as possible around it, and wash again to remove any hair or other foreign substance.When sand or hair has lodged in the depths of a deep cut never use a wet sponge to clean it out. Use a piece of absorbent cotton or cotton batting. There will be much less risk of infection.It will be useless to put stitches in a wound that is very deep or ragged, or that is located in a place not in perfect rest when the animal is making natural movements.Dry dusting powder has a healing effect on barb-wire wounds and other large, moist cuts and abrasions. Such a powder may be prepared cheaply by mixing together equal parts of slaked lime, sulphur and charcoal.Prevent lockjaw dangers in nail wounds of the hoof by opening them up freely, which provides drainage for serum and pus. Saturate with a solution of corrosive sublimate and water in the proportion of 1 to 500. Cover with dusting powder, absorbent cotton and a bandage. This treatment should be repeated daily until the wound is healed.

MUCH HORSE POWER IS LOST

Full Use of Animals Would Materially Reduce Cost of Crop Production
—More Work Is Urged.

(By W. J. SPILLMAN.)

Carefully conducted investigations by the agricultural department of the University of Minnesota, as well as those conducted by the office of farm management of the United States department of agriculture, show that under ordinary conditions on American farms work horses are utilized only about three and a half hours a day on the average. Horse power is thus utilized to less than half its capacity. Per unit of work done this power costs more than twice what it should cost. The full utilization of the power actually available would thus reduce materially the cost of producing crops. The cost of keeping a work horse is on the average about $125 a year. The average utilization of the horse is about 1,250 hours a year, at an hourly cost of ten cents per hour.
If we double the number of hours' work the horse does—and this can be done without injury to the animal—we reduce the hourly cost to five cents.

FEEDER PLACED ON RUNNERS

Large Storage Bin Arranged With Feeding Floor and Smaller Hopper —Like Bin Inside.Live stock on full feed is being more and more left to its inclination as to when it is to get its feed and the amount. The balancing of the rations is being also put in the work of the steer in making the most economical beef from the feeds available.

Automatic Stock Feeder.

The self-feeder shown here, which system may be built for either hogs or cattle, was patented recently by a Topeka (Kan.) man. A large storage bin, mounted on runners, is arranged with a feeding floor and a smaller hopperlike bin inside, a spout feeding the smaller bin from the larger.

ENEMY OF THE GRASSHOPPER

Nothing to Be Gained by Encouraging Blister Beetles—Destroy All Grasshopper Eggs in the Fall.Among the natural enemies of the grasshoppers are the blister beetles or old-fashioned potato bugs, the larvae of which subsist almost wholly on grasshopper eggs. The blister beetles become very abundant in grasshopper years when food is plentiful. However, little or nothing is gained by substituting a plague of blister beetles for a plague of grasshoppers and the wiser course is to destroy as many grasshopper eggs as possible in the fall, thereby cutting off the development of both sorts of pests.Avoid Dirty Pond Water.
Cattle should not be allowed to drink from old ponds which happen to contain water. You cannot get good milk or butter from dirty pond water.Time for Pruning.
Do not prune your trees until the sap has gone out of them, and then prune them carefully.

TO SUPPRESS RUMORS NOW

Imprisonment Awaits the Man Who Indulges in Gossip in London
About the War.In war times, under a strict censorship, rumors are as common as dirt. Everyone has one to pass on, remarks the New York Tribune.
You don't "belong" in any gathering unless you have at least one rumor to whisper. If a newspaper reporter believed all he heard he would never stop writing, or wouldn't write a line, depending on his physical make-up.Now the London police authorities have decided there are too many rumors about, and are taking steps to put a gag on the rumor mongers.
They have a merry task ahead of them. If every rumor monger is caught and labeled there will be more gags worn there than iron crosses in Berlin.But there is to be a distinction made in rumors. In the near future the man who whispers, "My friend in the admiralty tells me the Zeppelins are coming tonight," is liable to be thrown into jail and kept there at hard labor for some months. It won't make any difference whether he is an Englishman, a Frenchman or an American. Prosecutions will be pressed under the Defense of the Realm act, and this act gives the authorities a wide latitude. Woe betide the offender!

TOO BIG

"I have a plot of ground right here, and I am going to build a bungalow, and I'm looking for a wife to occupy it with me."
"From what I've seen of bungalows, you'd better get a smaller wife than me."

REPLACE ABSORBENT COTTON

Recent consular reports mention several more or less successful cheap substitutes for absorbent cotton that have been introduced since the European war began. One of these, now on sale in Berlin, is known as "lignin," and is made of pine cellulose. It is said to absorb blood better than cotton, but cannot compete with the latter as a dressing for wounds. It is however, pronounced satisfactory for use as a second dressing. A cellulose wadding, made by a secret process from chemical wood pulp, is now offered as a dressing for wounds in Sweden. It comes in very thin sheets resembling tissue paper. The use of sterilized sphagnum moss for the same purpose appears to have been generalized by the exigencies arising from the war.—Scientific American

"A great deal depends on the point of view," remarked the ready-made ful."

Scallops Delicious.

One pint of scallops, two tablespoonfuls of butter, one-half pint of cream, two egg yolks, one teaspoonful of salt, Cayenne pepper. Pour boiling water over the scallops and let stand five minutes. Melt the butter, beat together the yolks of eggs and cream and add gradually, stirring all the time.
Add seasonings, and as soon as well mixed add the scallops. Cook two or three minutes and serve on toast. One cupful of milk and two tablespoonfuls of flour may be used instead of cream, adding flour to the butter, and proceed as before.Pressed Flank of Beef.
Wipe, remove superfluous fat and roll a flank of beef; put in a kettle, cover with boiling water and add one tablespoonful salt, one-half teaspoonful peppercorns, a bit of bay leaf and a bone or two which may be at hand.
Cook slowly until meat is in shreds.
There should be but little liquor in the kettle when meat is done. Arrange meat in deep pan, pour over liquor, cover and press with a heavy weight.
Serve cold, thinly sliced.Spanish Rice.
Chop one fine large tomato, one green pepper, one onion. Sprinkle one teaspoonful of salt over it. Melt one tablespoonful of lard in a spider and when hot pour over one cupful of dry rice over it, and keep it moving until the rice is thoroughly heated, but not discolored. Add six cupfuls of boiling water and the chopped vegetables. Cook all together until the rice is tender, adding more water as it becomes necessary.Apple Sherbet.
Cook the pulp of six apples in one quart of cider, seasoned to taste with sugar and cinnamon. When tender rub through a sieve, cool and freeze.
When partly frozen add the stiffly beaten whites of two eggs. Serve in chilled apple shells.Deviled Sardines.
Remove the skins from the sardines, place on a buttered plate, season with Worcestershire sauce, mustard and cayenne. Cover with buttered crumbs and bake till brown.

Suppose that you or your family are nervous, jumpy, inclined to irritability.
Then you should choose the cooler, calmer shades of the scale of blue.
This doesn't mean confining yourself to blue. Orange belongs in the scale of blue; for orange, being made of the two other colors in the spectrum, is the complementary or direct opposite of blue; and, used with discretion, especially if the room has a northern exposure, it gives life and beauty to the main scheme, without becoming too exciting for the alert nerves of those who are to live in it. But if there are several husky, growing boys

WAR! What Is It All About?

HAS the whole world gone stark mad over a very foolish and trivial question? Are swords rattling, cannon rumbling, mailed armor glistering just because Russia wanted to show her love for the little brother—Serbia? Tear aside the curtain of Europe's politics and see the grim and sinister game of chess that is being played. See upon what a slim, yet desperate, excuse the sacred lives of millions are being sacrificed. Read the history of the past one hundred years, as written by some of the greatest authorities the world has ever known, and learn the naked, shameful truth. Just to get you started as a Review of Reviews subscriber, we make you this extraordinary offer. We will give to you

FREE—"Europe at War"

A big book and over 300 pages, size 10 x 7 inches, handsomely and durably bound in cloth, containing the dramatic history of the great events leading up to the present time; over 50 important and timely special articles by experts on the different phases of the conflict; hundreds of graphic pictures, portraits, photographs, diagrams, specially drawn war maps, illuminating statistical records, copies of official documents and diplomatic messages exchanged between the powers—a clear, vivid, accurate, permanent, interesting and valuable record—a record which once seen you will not willingly be without. Europe's past and present are here dramatically pictured and presented. Hundreds of illustrations graphically tell their own stories. More fascinating than any romance, here is a history so vivid, so dramatic, so stirring, so fascinating, so realistic, so wonderfully presented, so thoroughly told that it leaves an ineffable impression.

Your War News Clarified

It is not enough to read the daily news reports. Your ability to comprehend conditions and to discuss them rationally depends on a true interpretation of the meaning and the "reason why" of events. In your mind you must bring order out of chaos and the "Review of Reviews" will do it for you.

Get the Review of Reviews for a Year

Send the Coupon only. It brings the big, handsome book, charges prepaid, absolutely free. All we ask is that—after you get the book and like it—you send 25 cents for shipping and $1.00 a month for three months to pay for the "Review of Reviews" for one full year.

LEMON HAS MANY VIRTUES

Not Too Much to Say That It Is Indispensable in Every Household.

For all salads containing fruits or fish, lemon juice is much nicer than vinegar.

Slices of lemon make a nice garnish for a platter of cold meat when parsley is not to be had.

Bind a cloth soaked in lemon juice over night on a cut or wound to stop the bleeding.

To keep lemons fresh a long time, invert over them a glass or earthenware dish that fits the shelf closely.

Lemon juice added to fruit juices that do not jelly readily, such as cherries, strawberries, etc., will hasten the process.

Lemon juice added to milk until it curds and then bound upon parts swollen with rheumatism will sometimes bring relief and reduce the swelling.

Put half a pound of sugar in a bowl, add the grated rind and juice of one lemon and one-half cupful of boiling water. Whip still and spread between cake layers.

Very Nice Mince-meat.

Four bowlfuls chopped meat, eight bowlfuls chopped apples, two bowlfuls chopped and shredded suet, one bowlful fine cut citron; two bowlfuls seeded and shopped raisins, two bowlfuls cleaned currants, four bowlfuls light brown sugar, 1½ bowlfuls molasses, three bowlfuls sweet cider, one bowlful strong coffee, one bowlful pot liquor meat was cooked in, four bowlfuls chopped lemons (I put in a small quantity of orange marmalade in place of lemons), four tablespoonfuls cinnamon, two tablespoonfuls of cloves, allspice, nutmeg and salt. Cook slowly one day. You may have to change the spices.

For Rheumatism.

As soon as an attack of Rheumatism begins apply Sloan's Liniment. Don't waste time and suffer unnecessary agony. A few drops of Sloan's Liniment on the affected parts is all you need. The pain goes at once.

A grate sufferer writes:—"I was suffering for three weeks with Chronic Rheumatism and Stiff Neck, although I tried many medicines, they failed, and I was under the care of a doctor. Fortunately I heard of Sloan's Liniment and after using it three or four days am up and well. I am employed at the biggest department store in S. F. where they employ from six to eight hundred hands, and the sorely will hear all about Sloan's Liniment. H. B. Smith, San Francisco, Cal.—Jan. 1915. At all Druggists.—Advertisement.

Power of Money.

You tell me that money cannot buy the things most precious. Your commonplace proves that you have never known the lack of it. When I think of all the sorrow and the barrenness that has been wrought in my life by the want of a few more pounds per annum than I was able to earn, I stand aghast at money's significance. What kindly joys I have lost, those simple forms of happiness, to which every heart has claim, because of poverty. . . . I think it would scarce be an exaggeration to say that there is no moral good which has not been paid for in coin of the realm.—From "The Private Papers of Henry Ryecroft," by George Gissing.

To Cure Children's Colds.

Keep child dry, clothe comfortably, avoid exposure and give Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey. It is pleasant, soothing, antiseptic, raises phlegm and reduces inflammation. The first dose gives relief, continued treatment with proper care will avoid serious illness or a long cold. Don't delay treatment. Don't let your child suffer. Get a bottle today. We All Know That.

"Your dad is an old crank," said the youth who had been told by her father that 11 o'clock was time to go. Dad overheard the remark. "A crank is necessary in case of the lack of a self-starter," he retorted.

HOPKINSVILLE EVIDENCE FOR HOPKINSVILLE PEOPLE

The Statement of Hopkinsville Residents Are Surely More Reliable Than Those of Utter Strangers.

Home testimony is real proof. Public statements of Hopkinsville people carry real weight. What a friend or neighbor says compels respect.

The word of one whose home is far away invites your doubts.

Here's a Hopkinsville woman's statement.

And it's for Hopkinsville people's benefit.

Such evidence is convincing. That's the kind of proof that backs Doan's Kidney Pills.

Mrs. J. D. O'Daniel, 603 O'Neal St., Hopkinsville, says: "I suffered from pains in my back and sides and other troubles, caused by weak kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills quickly cured me. I know that they are the best kidney medicine to be had. I often advise friends and acquaintances to give Doan's Kidney Pills a trial."

A Corpulent One.

"It's rather curious about the Gadsbys."

"Yes?"

"They have a family skeleton."

"Nearly all families do."

"But the funny part about it is that the Gadsbys family skeleton is a relative of Mr. Gadsby, who once traveled about the country as a fat woman in a side show."

"George, dear, the cook we took without a recommendation has left us."

"I suppose that is because we are among the things she didn't consider of sufficient value to take with her."

Can't Charge Admission.

"Scadson believes in getting his money's worth."

"He doesn't always succeed, though."

"I thought him rather shrewd."

"Oh, the man who swaps dollars with him usually pays 20 per cent for the privilege, but whenever Mrs. Scadson gives a party, so far as Scadson is concerned, it's a dead loss."

Gosh, How He Dreads It!

"When your wife gets the ballot, are you prepared to accompany her to the polls?"

"Not yet," answered the timorous man. "But give me a little time. I'm gradually screwing up my courage to the sticking point, for it is already settled that I'm to be her escort."

Liven up Your Torpid Liver.

To keep your liver active use Dr. King's New Life Pills. They insure good digestion, relieve constipation and tone up the whole system—keep your eye clear and your skin fresh and healthy looking. Only 25c. at your Druggist.—Advertisement.

Figuratively Speaking.

"What you need is elbow grease," said the lady, after watching the tramp's languid efforts to split a stick of wood. "A purely figurative term, leddy," he responded. "If I knew where elbow grease could be purchased I'd buy some. But you can't purchase a purely metaphorical commodity." "Oh, I don't know. You evidently know where to buy nose paint."

People who use Peruna

Mrs. T. French, R. R. 1, Hickory Point, Tenn., writes: "I am happy to tell you that I am cured of catarrh. Having been afflicted with catarrh and stomach trouble for seven years, and after having tried four different doctors, who only relieved me for a little while, I gave up all hope of being cured. I was induced to try Peruna, and to my great surprise I am now entirely well. My health never was better."

FOR INDIGESTION

Mrs. W. R. Whitehead, R. R. 1, Pryor, Oklahoma, writes: "I am happy to tell you that I keep free from my old stomach trouble; feel no catarrhal symptoms at all. I am able to do my work, eat and drink what I want, and rejoice to know that I found a sure cure in your valuable medicine. I think it saved my life. By beginning in time with Peruna I was cured sound and well."

AN APPEAL FOR TOBACCO

Growers in Kentucky Asked for Donations of Leaf Tobacco, for Soldiers.

Among the many appeals in connection with the War Relief work done in Europe by Americans, the call for tobacco comes with such peculiar insistence to the people of Kentucky, that the courtesy of the Press is requested for a brief statement to Growers of tobacco, from the War Relief Committee operating in Louisville.

During the war of 1870 between Germany and France, tobacco was issued as part of the soldiers' daily rations. At the present time this is impossible, yet the need is greater than ever before, and must appeal to every man accustomed to its use. Tobacco steadies the nerves, takes the place of stimulants and food, and is the only thing which allays for a time the sickening stench of putrefaction which pervades the battlefield.

The call comes from the soldiers of many nations. Some lie suffering in hospitals, blinded, maimed or disfigured for life; others crouch within the narrow confines of trenches, listening to the thunder of guns, the din of battle, the cry of the wounded.

Shall not we show our pity and our comradeship by responding to their appeal in a manner befitting the dignity and honor of Kentucky as a tobacco growing State?

Notwithstanding the fact that the sale of tobacco is a Government monopoly in France, the following letter has been received:

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 11, 1915.

Agence Consulaire de France

"MRS. GILMER S. ADAMS:

Dear Madam:—I have the honor to inform you that all restrictions are lifted as to sending of tobacco to the Allies. You can therefore send all tobaccos you desire to donate direct to the Intendence Militaire at Bordeaux, France. I am instructed at the same time to thank you and your friends in the name of the French Government as well as in my name for your generosity.

Very respectfully yours,
(Signed) MICHEL HERMANN, Agent Consulaire de France."

The War Relief Committee of Louisville will gratefully receive any contributions of leaf tobacco. They will be conveyed to the War Zone through the medium of the American National Red Cross, and the courtesy of the French Government without expense to the donors. Packages must be directed to the Committee on War Relief, care Mr. William N. Cox, Louisville Public Warehouse Company, corner Brook and Main Streets, Louisville, Kentucky.

Mrs. Gilmer S. Adams, President Kentucky Society Colonial Dames.

Mrs. George G. Ayery, Chairman Executive Committee War Relief Work.

Mrs. Adger Stewart Louisville; Mrs. Samuel H. Halley, Lexington; Mrs. James P. Helm, Louisville; Mrs. Harry L. Smyser, Louisville; Mr. James C. Stone, Louisville; Mr. William N. Cox, Louisville. Committee to secure Leaf Tobacco for European Soldiers.

Change of Place and Time.

The Sunday school officers and teachers of the Methodist church will meet on Tuesday night at the parsonage instead of Thursday night as announced on Sunday last. The change is due to the Redpath number which will be given Thursday night at the Tabernacle, and many of the officers and teachers have tickets and want to attend the Lyceum number.

THIGG COUNTY NEWS.

Cadiz, Ky., Feb. 14.

Editor Kentuckian:

C. F. Miller, of the Roaring Spring district, has been appointed magistrate to fill a vacancy. A good selection. Mr. Miller is a considerate and intelligent gentleman and his people should congratulate themselves upon having him to act for them. Every county should select the best men they have to fill this office, as it is an important one.

The Record, in speaking of the aspiring county candidates, failed to mention the name of Dr. Wade Jefferson for the office of sheriff and Judge John D. Shaw for county attorney, two of the most prominent candidates for these offices.

The city council has repealed the hog ordinance and we are now permitted to keep our pigs in the pen inside the corporate limits.

E. D. New, a widower, aged 65, and Miss Ella Spiceland, aged 55, were married on Feb. 10.

Our congenial and farmer townsman, Judge Wallace Hancock, who has resided in Hopkinsville for the past three years, has returned to Cadiz and will put up a purchase of tobacco. We are glad to have the Judge with us again.

Our poultry dealers have been doing a good business during the past week.

Holeman & Jackson have been shipping a car load or two of cattle every week.

Brag Hopson, of Canton, sold to one of our fur dealers twenty-four fox pelts last week. Is there anyone that can beat that on foxes?

We had the pleasure of meeting our old friend John Hancock, and son Silas, of near Newton's store, a few days ago.

Plomer Blane and Rev. John Alexander, who have been sick for several weeks, are much better and will soon be out again. X. Y. Z.

Likes The Glad Game.

Any day you feel at "outs" with the world try greeting the first six people you meet with a smile and a cheery word. We'll guarantee that your own case of blues will be cured and that six other people will feel better. This prescription can be tried free of charge by any person in Harrodsburg.—Harrodsburg Herald.

Many Bills Ready.

With the State-wide prohibition obstruction out of the way, it is believed that during the twenty-four remaining days of the legislative session measures will be rapidly disposed of. A hundred or more bills are in the orders of the day in the House.

$60 Tobacco.

The record price for the season was reached again Tuesday when a basket in Raiser & Ware's crop of 6,000 pounds sold at $60, the entire crop averaging $15. The sales for the day, only two houses selling, aggregated $185,000 pounds.—Shelby Sentinel.

Wheat Sells For $1.30.

A local planter sold about 1,000 bushels of wheat the past week for $1.30 per bushel. Who said the Progress advice every year doesn't come very close to right doctrine?—Progress.

Engagement Announced.

Mr. A. L. Noe, of Louisville, announces the engagement of his daughter, Miss Ruth Noe, to Mr. Maurice T. Paine. The wedding will take place early in the spring. The bride-to-be is a grand-daughter of Mr. A. D. Noe, Sr., of this city.

Lot Selected.

The treasury department has selected what is known as the Johnson lot on Main street, Madisonville, Ky., as the site for a new postoffice building in that city. The site will cost $5,000.

BOTH GAMES WON EASILY

Madisonville Meets: Defeat in Double Header Friday Night.

In the fast games Friday night the High School teams were victorious. The High School boys beating the Madisonville boys by the score of 45 to 7 and the High School girls won from the girls of the Earlington High School by the tune of 18 to 6.

Madisonville started off with great "pep" and tried to use their rough style of play. Mr. Steinhouse of Paducah refereed and he allowed no rough playing. Before the game had been in progress many minutes the Madisonville team saw they were beaten and endeavored in vain to stop the basket shooting of the locals.

Brown of the local five was the star of the game. He threw ten field goals and his work in the team work was splendid. Breathitt's and Roberts' work at forward was great. Roberts made five field goals. Torian and Moseley both played steady games as guards, always being in front of the passes that were intended for the Madisonville forwards.

There was no special star for Madisonville.

The lineup:

Hopkinsville	Position	Madisonville
Roberts	f. f.	Riddle
Breathitt	r. f.	Wilson
Brown	c.	Solomon
Torian	l. g.	Michael
Moseley	r. g.	Arnold
The score:	1st	2nd
Hopkinsville	22	22
Madisonville	3	4
Summary.	Hopkinsville; Field goals—Roberts 5, Breathitt 3, Brown 10, Torian 2. Fowl goals—Breathitt 1, Torian 3. Fowls committed—Roberts 1, Breathitt 2, Torian 3.

Madisonville; Field goals—Wilson 1, Arnold 2. Field goals—Riddle 1, Fowls committed—Riddle 4, Wilson 2, Solomon 1, Michael 1, Arnold 1. Substitutes—Thomas for Solomon, Buchanan for Riddle. Referee—Steinhouse. Umpire—Michael.

The Earlington girls were at no time during the game equal to the good floor work and basket shooting of the High School girls. Mary Campbell, the captain and star forward of the team, made 4 field goals and 6 foul goals.

The lineup:

Hopkinsville	Position	Earlington

100-Mile Aeroplanes.

The German, have a new type of aeroplane called the Fokker, said to have a speed of 100 miles an hour, with a gun in front. It is purely a fighting machine, built exclusively for the chase, and neither stable enough nor able to carry enough petrol for reconnaissance work. It lies in wait for scouts coming over its lines, climbs very quickly and then makes a hawk-like swoop, escaping back to its own lines if it meets with serious opposition. The British also claim to have a new type just as good, one of them having brought down three Fokkers in one day recently.

Lacy-Cranor.

Ernest Lacy and Miss Ressie Cranor, of near Crofton, were united in marriage at the First Baptist parsonage Saturday night by Rev. C. M. Thompson. The bride is a daughter of Mr. D. T. Cranor. The groom has been residing at Providence, Ky., for several months. He recently underwent an operation at the Jennie Stuart Memorial Hospital for appendicitis and had been out of the hospital only a few days.

The Hobenzollern Boys.

Emperor William's six sons are doing something all of time. Five in the army and one in the navy. One has just been brought home disabled by wounds, another has a new baby and Joachim, the youngest, is to wed an Anhalt princess on the 11th of March.

is master of every situation.
He can grasp any good, first-class business opportunity.

Have you ever said to yourself when some good business chance came along: "If I only had a thousand dollars NOW?"

The way to get your first THOUSAND is to put your first DOLLAR in our bank with a strong will to bank more and to bank REGULARLY. The other $999 will follow more easily than putting in the first dollar.

Isn't this experiment worth TRYING? Would John D. Rockefeller have been the richest man in the world if he had never banked his FIRST dollar?

BANK OF HOPKINSVILLE

In Perry County.

Attorneys for Barksdale Hamlett, who is contesting the election of Judge James P. Lewis to the office of secretary of state, began the taking of their depositions at Hazard last week. Hamlett is represented by Bailey D. Wooten and Rebel Martin, of Hazard, and Lewis is represented by Thomas McGregor and Edwin P. Morrow and is in Hazard himself. It is alleged by Hamlett that many illegal votes were cast at No. 11 precinct in Hazard and the evidence taken will be aimed at proving these allegations in an attempt to throw out the whole of this precinct. No. 11 precinct includes two or three mining camps in and around Hazard, where many negroes are employed.

Rural Carrier Examination.

The United States Civil Service Commission has announced an examination for the County of Christian, Ky., to be held at Hopkinsville on March 11, 1916, to fill the position of rural carrier at Herndon and vacancies that may later occur on rural routes from other post office in the above-mentioned county. The examination will be open only to male citizens who are actually domiciled in the territory of a post office in the county and who meet the other requirements set forth in Form No. 1977. This form and application blanks may be obtained from the offices mentioned above or from the United States Civil Service Commission at Washington, D. C. Applications should be forwarded to the Commission at Washington at the earliest practicable date.

Note of Warning.

No "pipe dream" about this. You may put it in your pipe and smoke it: The real goblin that will get you if you don't watch out is the great big Mail Order goblin. This goblin has got the bulk of the business in many communities. Do not let it ruin our community. It is the greatest detriment and in the end will be the means of lowering property value. If you are loyal to your home town you will patronize your home merchant.—Seabree Banner.

Miss Keller.

Helen Keller, who became deaf, dumb and blind when nineteen months old, but who was taught by Miss Sullivan now Mrs. Macy for 28 years and her wonderful intellect developed, lectured in Louisville last week. She is now 35 years old and remarkably intelligent. She has been taught to speak, but articulates slowly and in monotone, never having heard her own voice.

Early Blossoms.

A pear tree in the yard of C. E. Harris, on South Virginia street, is in bloom.

HIT ON HEAD

Stranger Says He Was Assaulted and Robbed by a Negro.

A stranger giving his name as J. J. Robinson, of Kingston Springs, Tenn., is being cared for at the lockup, suffering from wounds on his head. He says he was assaulted by a negro on the I. C. Railroad, near the third trestle, where he was found by C. R. Atkins and brought to town. He claims he was robbed of $34. He says he came here from Chicago and has a family at Kingston Springs.

A Devoted Son.

Banquo, Ind.—John Smelser, 56, is sleeping in a bed for the first time in seven years, the death of his mother, Mrs. Mary Smelser, 86, having released him from his strange pact to sleep on the floor each night at the foot of her bed and within call. She had been paralyzed seven years, but her death was due to pneumonia. Charles Smelser sat up with his mother every other night during her long illness.

Jennie Stuart Hospital Items.

Mrs. J. H. Brown, of Central City, underwent an operation Saturday and is doing nicely.

Miss Virginia Backus, of Gracey, was operated upon yesterday for appendicitis, and stood the ordeal well.

Mr. E. J. Duncan, Rev. J. B. Moody and Miss Thelma Williamson are all doing well.

Elks Banquet.

The Elks are preparing for a big time at the Lodge to-night and in the dining room following the meeting of the lodge. The 15th anniversary of the institution of the lodge will be observed with a banquet. T. C. Underwood will be the toastmaster and there will be plenty of speeches.

Easy Victory.

Harlan, Ky., Feb. 14.—Returns from practically all precincts in the county in Saturday's good road $250,000 bonds election indicate that the proposition has carried by a majority of about 8 to 1.

Rosson-Moore.

J. E. W. Rosson, of Central City, and Miss Bernice V. Moore, daughter of Mr. James J. Moore, of this city, were granted a license to marry Saturday.

Hunting Cover.

About fifty alleged Possum Hunters were indicted at Morgantown. Many of them voluntarily confessed.

Married 50 Years.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Knear, of Harrison county, Ind., celebrated their golden wedding Feb. 6.

HIS GOOD ADVICE

ANONYMOUS.

There wasn't the least bit of harm about Brodwaizer. He was as amiable and well-meaning a little man as ever wore felt insoles and a chamol's leather chest protector. But people in general hardly appreciated his good qualities. The first time that Smith saw him he was standing at the edge of a roadside excavation for gas pipes watching the deliberate movements of a laborer who was ostensibly engaged in throwing out gravel. As Smith approached he heard Brodwaizer say: "My man, if you would grasp your shovel with your left hand a little nearer the blade of your implement you would find it a better fulcrum for the leverage of your right and be enabled to raise more earth with substantially the same exertion."

The man stopped and looked up. "Pfwat's that?" he asked.

Brodwaizer repeated his advice and the man surveyed him for a moment or two with withering contempt.

"And to blazes wid ye an' yer fulcrum!" he said at last. "Gwan away home wid ye an' yer leverages, ye little dough-faced, lantern-jawed idjut. Talk to me about implements an' I'll shut ye in me dinner pail an' kape ye there till ye larn manners, so I will. Gwan!"

Brodwaizer reddened and moved away in silent dignity. Smith felt sorry for him and expressed his sympathy. "Oh," Brodwaizer said, "I hardly expected anything but abuse. One gets little thanks for good advice, I notice."

It was a windy day and before they had got very far a sudden gust removed Smith's straw hat. He recovered it with some difficulty and was rather out of breath when he rejoined Brodwaizer. The latter had waited, and as Smith came up he said: "If I were you I would buy one of these hat guards. They can be obtained for a mere trifle at any hat store, and the expenditure is repaid a thousand times by their saving of temper, to say nothing of the possibility of the hat being blown beneath the wheels of a dray."

"I've seen them," Smith said. "You don't wear one yourself, I notice."

"It's unnecessary," he replied, "my hat never—"

The wind took it as he spoke and sent it careering down the street, finally landing it in a puddle from whence he rescued it dripping with mud and water. Smith could not help saying that in a high wind it was a good idea to hold a loosely fitting hat by the brim with a tenacious clutch, but Brodwaizer seemed unconscious of the delicate sarcasm of the remark, so much so that when they arrived at Smith's front gate he called Smith's attention to the fact that it creaked on its hinges and recommended the application of sweet oil as a remedy for the unpleasant sound.

He was a near neighbor of Smith's and soon after that first meeting he called on Smith informally, as Smith was weeding his flower beds. On that occasion Smith became indebted to his visitor for two pieces of valuable information—that tobacco burned beneath a rosebush covered with a cloth or something of that sort to keep in the smoke had a discouraging effect upon the plant parasites known as green fly, and that a porch of sufficient width on the west front of his cottage would afford a grateful shade against the rays of the sun in the afternoons.

He was a veritable encyclopedia of knowledge—never at a loss for a little suggestion on any subject. Until Smith learned that Brodwaizer was a bookkeeper for a firm of glass importers he imagined he must conduct the "Helpful Hints" department of some newspaper.

Smith overheard him in the meat market one morning instructing the butcher in the art of meat cutting.

"That ain't nothin', though," said the good-natured butcher, with a fat smile, when Brodwaizer had left. "He's give me pointers on preservin' eggs in their original new laidness by dippin' 'em in lue an' water. I'll bet he taught his grandmother to suck 'em. I trimmed a sirloin for him the other day an' when I threw the suet in the box under the counter he says: 'I sh'd think you'd use the fragments of meat in some sort o' way 'stid o' wastin' 'em. If you'd put the best of 'em in your sausage machine with proper seasonin' there ain't no reason why it wouldn't be good as long as the meat's fresh.' Ho! ho!"

But Brodwaizer is no more. He was a good citizen, a good neighbor and a kind of fussy husband and father. He died last spring of pneumonia. A little before he passed away the doctor happened to cough to hide his emotion at the sight of Mrs. Brodwaizer's grief.

"Doctor," said Brodwaizer, faintly, "you want to take care of that cough. Don't neglect it. It may develop into something serious. Now, when you get home have your wife heat some water and put it in a foot-tub with a little mustard. Then—"

He sank back on his pillow. That was the last piece of advice he ever gave.—Chicago Daily News.

The Safer Plan.

She—Don't you think a man is a fool to marry a woman for her money?

He—I sure do. It would be a whole lot safer for him to jolly her into making it to him.

MANY CABINETS IN FRANCE

Statesmen of Almost Every Shade of Political Belief Have Held Reins of Power.

Forty-four years ago Louis Adolphe Thiers became president of France, which nation formally entered upon its third experiment with a republican form of government. Since then France has had nine presidents and no less than forty-nine ministries—even more if unsuccessful attempts to form cabinets are to be counted. French politics has been in a constant state of turmoil and has been subject to kaleidoscopic changes; ministries rising and falling with bewildering rapidity. When M. Rene Viviani was called upon by President Poincare to form a new cabinet few expected that he would be successful where such political veterans as Ribot and Doumergue had failed. Not only did Viviani bring order out of chaos which threatened to engulf the Poincare regime, but when the war began he brought into his government the leaders of all the warring parties. Threatened by a foreign foe, the political turmoil in France, upon which the Germans had counted so much, was suddenly stilled, and France was enabled to present a united front to the enemy.

GETS $250,000 IN A BOTTLE

Shipwrecked Sailor Leaves Ample Fortune to Man Who Had Befriended Him.

Five years ago Edward C. O'Neil kept a little flower store on the docks at Seattle and was known as an easy mark among panhandling seafaring men. Among those he assisted was John Belisle, a native of Montreal.

A bottle found on the shores of Puget sound recently contained what purports to be Belisle's will, giving all his property to O'Neil, saying, "When I was down and out he gave me food." The will was dated in a launch at sea with death imminent. The property is described as six claims on the Iditarod, Alaska, worth $250,000.

O'Neil is working in a Columbus seed store now. He does not remember Belisle, and says he has a feeling somebody is "kidding" him.—Columbus (Ohio) Dispatch to New York Sun.

STRANGE DIET FOR CATTLE.

In Shetland and Iceland the farmers feed dry salt fish to cattle, sheep, and even to horses. Mr. Cecil Wood, describing experiments of this nature, mentions that certain special cattle, kept for display at the village festivals in Nandyal, in India, are fed with mutton, and adds that it is a fairly common practice to make use of bandicoots (large Indian rats) by pounding them in a mortar and feeding them to cattle. In Mr. Wood's experiments two lots of heifers were fed on dried fish diet and normal diet respectively.

The animals took a little time to get used to the fish, but they ate it readily enough.

NEW STUMPS FOR OLD.

An industry which has been practically dormant in the past but which is now growing by leaps and bounds is the manufacture of false arms and legs. One American concern is said to have received already orders from the French and English governments to the extent of $15,000,000. The normal producing capacity of this concern is two hundred artificial legs a month, and it is planned to have its output multiplied five times in the near future.

Might Be Dead Today.

Garden City, Kas.—In a letter from Mrs. James Hammer, of this city, she says: "I firmly believe that I would not be alive today, if it were not for Cardui. I had been a sufferer from womanly troubles all my life, until I found that great remedy. I feel that I can't praise it too highly." Are you a woman, suffering from some of the troubles, to which a woman is peculiarly liable? If so, why not try Cardui, the woman's tonic? You can rely on Cardui. It is purely vegetable, perfectly harmless, and acts gently but surely, without bad after-effects. 'Twill help you. Ask your druggist. Advertisement.

Using Liquid Oxygen.

It has long been known that liquid oxygen mixed with substances like cotton wool forms a powerful explosive, but serious difficulties were encountered in its practical use. A new method has now been discovered for handling this oxygen that makes it practical for commercial use. Bags are filled with a special form of lamp-black, which are soaked in the liquid oxygen for a few minutes just before they are required for use. If the bag is now lighted with a match it will burn quickly and very slowly, but if detonated it explodes with the force of dynamite, and the cost is much less. Much less carbon monoxide is given off than by most other explosives, and there is no danger from a misfire as the oxygen will evaporate in a short time.

A healthy man is a king in his own right; an unhealthy man an unhappy slave. For impure blood and sluggish liver, use Burdock Blood Bitters. On the market 35 years. $1.00 a bottle.—Advertisement.

Just a Delicate Hint.

Allen, aged five, was passing the afternoon with his aunt in the suburbs, and after he had been at play for a time he said: "Aunt Mary, mamma said I wasn't to ask you for a piece of pie, but she didn't tell me not to take it if you offered it to me."

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

Absent-Minded.

Her neighbors were discussing the character of a venerable woman whom they esteemed to be wise in her generation, but a young man said it struck him that she showed great lack of wisdom in one respect. "What is that, pray?" inquired one of the group. "Why," said the young man, "she always puts out her tubs to catch soft water when it's raining hard."

 PREVENTS RUST

3 IN ONE

3-in-One is a light, pure oil compound that never gums. 3-in-One lubricates perfectly sewing machines, typewriters, bicycles, locks, clocks, guns, lawnmowers—everything that ever needs oiling in your home or office. No grease. No acid. A little 3-in-One on a soft cloth cleans and polishes perfectly all veneered or varnished furniture and woodwork. Sprinkled on a yard of black cheesecloth it makes an ideal Dustless Duster. 3-in-One absolutely prevents rust on gun barrels, radio fixtures, bath room fixtures, gas ranges, everything metal, indoors or out, in any climate. It seeps into the unseen metal pores and forms a protecting "overcoat" which stays on. Free—3-in-One—Free. Write today for generous free bottle and the 3-in-One Dictionary of hundreds of uses.
 3-in-One is sold in all good stores in 3-size bottles: 10c (1 oz.), 25c (3 oz.), 50c (8 oz., 1/2 pint). Also in new patented Handy Oil Can, 25c (3 1/2 oz.).

HICKORY NUT COVERED BY ENGRAVINGS MADE IN 1731.

Alphretta, Ga., Feb. 5.—Miss Mary Hook has a large hickory nut which has been a cherished possession of her family for six generations. It is covered with engravings made with a pocket knife in 1731.

The work was done by one of her ancestors, William Kendrick, a civil engineer and school teacher. The engravings are perfect pictures, although so small that the aid of a glass is required to see them.

In addition to the initials "W. K." and the date, 1731, the pictures are a hickory tree, a hog, a cormorant, a fox, an eagle and a squirrel with its tail curved over its back and a nut in its paw.

German Consul Roh, at New Orleans has admitted he wrote the letters taken by the British from Captain Von Papen the recalled military attache, signed "R. V. M." and ascribed to R. Von Meyenburg, former German consul at New Orleans.

Road Bond Election

Notice--To the Voters of Christian County.

Pursuant to an order entered upon the first Monday in February, 1916, to-wit February 7th by the County Judge of Christian County upon his Order Book, and under the directions of the County Court of Christian County, I hereby inform and notify all of the legal voters of Christian County, that upon Saturday, March 18th, 1916, there will be held in the thirty-two election precincts in said County at the voting places thereof, an election upon the following questions which will be submitted to the voters of Christian County, to-wit: "ARE YOU IN FAVOR OF ISSUING $400,000 IN BONDS FOR THE PURPOSE OF BUILDING ROADS AND BRIDGES?"

Further, I have been directed to advertise the objects of said election, and therefore set them forth as follows, to-wit:

This election is held for the purpose of enabling the County of Christian to improve its roads under the State Aid Law, whereby the State refunds or pays back, one half of the amount issued in bonds, in annual installments.

Eight Commissioners already selected and recognized by the Fiscal Court of Christian County, four from the North end of the County, to-wit: D. T. Cranor, W. W. Durham, J. P. Myers and Waller Martin; and four from the South end of the County, to-wit: O. E. Layne, W. C. Binns, Howard Brame and Ben F. Wood, are to handle the proceeds of the bond issue to be voted upon, and to designate the roads, under the supervision of the Fiscal Court and the State Road Department.

By an order and resolution passed by the Fiscal Court of Christian County, upon Tuesday, February 1, 1916, the Princeton and Russellville roads shall be known as the dividing line between the Northern portion of the County, and the Southern portion of the County, and the proceeds of any bonds to be voted at this election must be equally divided between the portion of the County north of said dividing line, and the portion south of said dividing line. Any amount spent upon the Princeton and Russellville roads, is to be chargeable one half to each of these respective sections.

The object of this bond issue, is to improve ALL the roads of the County, and is not for the purpose of giving aid and benefit to any certain road.

This February 10th, 1916.
(Signed) J. W. SMITH, Sheriff.
By CARRIE E. JOHNSON, Deputy.

RICHARD BARKER

End Comes to Attorney While Seated in Louisville Trust Company's Bank.

Richard Henry Barker, 67 years old, an attorney, was stricken with a heart attack while seated on a bench at the Louisville Trust Company's bank at 11:15 o'clock Saturday morning and fell to the floor. Death was almost instantaneous. He had been subject to heart trouble for some time.

The Rev. Dr. E. L. Warren, a professor at the Kentucky Presbyterian Theological Seminary, was standing nearby and ran to Mr. Barker's side. Bank employees summoned physicians but life was extinct when they arrived.

Mr. Barker was a brother of Judge Henry S. Barker, president of the State University of Kentucky at Lexington. Judge Barker was in the building at the time of his brother's death but did not reach him until after death had ensued. John Stites, of the Louisville Trust Company, is a relative by marriage. — Louisville Times.

The Appropriations Committees of both the House and Senate have decided to report favorably the bill to appropriate $20,000 annually until 1920 for the use of the Kentucky Illiteracy Commission in furthering its campaign. If the appropriation is to come out of the school fund, well and good. If otherwise, the bill should not be passed.

HOWELL ITEMS.

Editor Kentuckian:

Mrs. G. H. Giles was the hostess of the Howell Book Club on Tuesday afternoon. There were four tables of progressive Rook. After the games delightful refreshments were served.

The Howell High School Debating Society elected the following officers: President, Walker Garrett; Vice President, John Sumner; Secretary, Miss Nell Clardy. Program committee: Joseph Garnett, William Littlefield and Misses Bernice Smithson and Nina Crenshaw. This society meets each Friday afternoon, immediately after the noon hour. Interesting programs are prepared for each meeting. All friends who are interested in this phase of the work are urged to attend.

The county examinations were given several days ago and Walker Garrett led the school with an average of 93.25. He was given a close race by Miss Eleanor King and Preston Haynes. We are glad to say that all of our students passed.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Radford and Miss Flossie Griffith went to Nashville Friday, to hear Riccardo Martin.

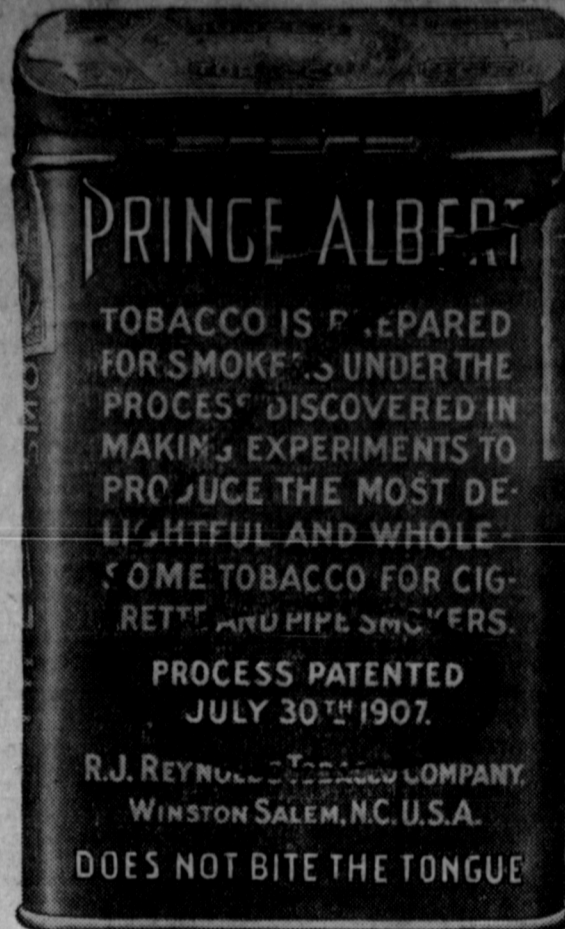

Misses Myrtle Dickerson and Bess Haynes spent most of the week with Mrs. G. H. Giles.

Mrs. E. L. Gates, of Herndon, was the guest of Mrs. A. K. Fleming this week.

Miss Crit McKnight is visiting relatives in Hopkinsville.

R. E. PORTER.

At a Chicago banquet the other night, instead of having a long list of speeches they put poison in the soup.

Why Prince Albert meets men's tastes all over the world!

The patented process makes Prince Albert so good in a pipe or rolled into a cigarette that its popularity is now universal! It satisfies all smoke desires! This patented process, which also removes bite and parch, is controlled by us. No other tobacco can be like the national joy smoke

PRINCE ALBERT

Listen:

It's easy to change the shape and color of unsalable brands to imitate the Prince Albert tidy red tin, but it is impossible to imitate the flavor of Prince Albert tobacco! The patented process protects that!

Men who have stowed away gentle old jimmy pipes for years, have brought them back to the tune of Prince Albert! Get yours out, for your confidence never will be abused! We tell you Prince Albert will set pipe free the tenderest tongue!

And smoked in a makin's cigarette, Prince Albert is so refreshing and delightful that it gives you a new idea of cigarette happiness. Any way you fire-up Prince Albert, it will win you quick as a flash—it's so good and so friendly!

R. J. REYNOLDS TOBACCO CO., Winston-Salem, N. C.

Prince Albert can be bought everywhere tobacco is sold—in tippy red bags, 5c; tidy red tins, 10c; handsome pound and half-pound tin humidor and in that classy pound crystal-glass humidor with sponge-moistener top that keeps the tobacco in such fine condition!

Oldest "Invalid" Dead.

Miss Mollie Fancher, who celebrated her "gilded jubilee" as an invalid Feb. 3, died Feb. 11 at her home in Brooklyn. Miss Fancher was known to thousands of people all over the world through the extraordinary correspondence she built up during her half century of her invalidism. Although bedridden and only able to move her right arm, she worked incessantly at knitting and embroidery. In 1866, when Miss Fancher was 17 years old and noted for her beauty, she was thrown from her horse and terribly injured. A year later she was the victim of a street car accident which deprived her of the use of all her limbs except her right arm. For nine years she remained in a trance-like condition, during which period her friends insisted she was a clairvoyant. It was in these years that she built up her correspondence, dictating a total of 6,900 letters. During the fifty years of her imprisonment in a sick room Miss Fancher's chief nourishment was the juice of fruits.

Rural Carrier Examination.

The United States Civil Service Commission has announced an examination for the county of Trigg, Ky., to be held at Hopkinsville on February 26, 1916, to fill the position of rural carrier at Cerulean and Cadiz, and vacancies that may later occur on rural routes from other post offices in the above-mentioned county. The examination will be open only to male citizens who are actually domiciled in the territory of a post office in the county and who meet the other requirements set forth in Form No. 1977. This form and application blanks may be obtained from the offices mentioned above or from the United States Civil Service Commission at Washington, D. C. Applications should be forwarded to the Commission at Washington at the earliest practicable date.

Will Try Again.

Whitesburg, Ky., Feb. 14.—Divorced and remarriage within six months is the record of T. Garrett Wright, 30 years old, leading Fleming dentist, and Miss Carrie Belle Blair, 25 years old, of Thornton. Their divorce was granted in August. They met a few days ago and concluded to make up.

Variety of Refugees.

There is somewhat of a mixture in the camp of flood refugees at Hickman, which contains a man 105 years old, a baby a week old, a bride and groom and a young mother only 16 years of age.

Mud Hole's Victim.

Cairo, Ky., Feb. 14.—While endeavoring to get two teams and loads of tobacco out of a mud hole, Jack Wright, of Sebree, dropped dead near here late Thursday afternoon. Mr. Wright, with his younger son, Charley Wright, were on their way to Henderson, in Vanderburg, with two loads of tobacco, and when near Tunnel Hill they got stuck in the mud, where they remained for several hours.

Both had been working hard, doubling up their teams, in an effort to remove the wagons from the mud, which was up to the axle. They finally succeeded in pulling out and were about ready to leave, when the father fainted and fell in the mud, dying a few minutes later.

Weds Sunshine.

Chicago, Feb. 14.—Miss Lucile Wilson, 19 years old, of Nashville, Tenn., said to be prominent socially, who has been visiting her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. McKellops, 4047 Sheridan road, was married to Jack Sunshine, dancer at the Bismarck hotel.

Miss Wilson, who is the daughter of the wealthy widow of a former real estate man in Nashville, met Mr. Sunshine a few days ago, and admits his dancing hypnotized her, and she has decided that she wants a "dancing Sunshine" for the rest of her life.

It was learned that "Jack Sunshine" is only the dancer's stage name. His real name is Jacob Sonnenschein. Miss Wilson met him about a week ago.
